Manager's Notes

Tonight we welcome Phil Neal and his side to Bloomfield Road for what looks a very difficult task on paper. I read over the weekend that their victory then was their ninth in succession and they'll want to keep their run going but it has to end sometime – tonight is as good a time as any. A quick goal can change things dramatically and we'll have to be at our best to achieve it.

Our inconsistencies showed for periods of the game last Saturday against Maidstone but like the Hereford game we showed character to draw after being behind. This resilience is vital but we've got to finish teams off when we have them under pressure if we're to improve our League position.

The Leyland DAF Cup is what we're about tonight and thanks to all you loyal supporters who've turned out tonight, I hope we can reward you with a win.
